SPECIAL EDUCATION

Six students are enrolled in this year's Special Education Class under the supervision of Tom Wendel.

The Special Education class is designed to fit the individual needs of the students. No pressure is put on the students for their work. Each one is able to work at his own speed. Some of the students attend other classes in the school's curriculum such as Vocational Agriculture, Home Economics, Physical Education, Driver's Education, and Glee Club.

Various field trips are taken by the students throughout the year.

EAGLE STAFF

The Eagle Staff works hard to put together an interesting and accurate account of KHS school life. They encounter many problems such as photo deadline, copy layouts. This year the staff has concentrated on people and places. After all deadlines were met, the staff completed a literary magazine consisting of writing from KHS students.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council of Kingman High School was organized in 1920, and since then the members have worked hard to plan various activities such as WPA week, spirit day, planning Homecoming, and a tree is purchased for the commons area at Christmas.

They have helped the students with problems such as, if a student has a problem that he wishes to be solved, he should take it to one of the Stuco representatives. Then at the next Stuco meeting, they discuss it, and if they can not solve it, it is taken to a higher authority. Mike Harper is the President and Curtis Ramsey is the Vice President. Ken Stuke is this year's advisor.

YOUTH CENTER REPRESENTATIVES

Four students are elected from each class to represent their class as Youth Center Representatives. Youth Center Representatives are responsible for getting sponsors and opening the Recreation Center on Tuesday, Friday, and Saturday nights. The Recreation Center is open to all students if K.H.S. from 7–10 on Tuesdays, and 7–11 or 12 on Fridays and Saturdays. The director is Pinky Busick.

Seven issues were published throughout the year. The paper was financed by selling ads to local merchants. Bob Danler and Marla Lindenmeyer are Co-Editors and Mrs. Davis is the advisor.

EAGLE FOOTBALL

The Eagle's varsity football team suprised their tough Chisholm Trail League opponents this year. After being picked to finish in the cellar of their league in a pre-season pick, they pulled upset after upset. The team reached their peak in the fourth game of the season against Valley Center in which they won 14-13 in overtime. Valley Center had earlier in the season been picked to win the league. With a lot of hard work and team desire the Eagles were able to finish in a tie for second with Goddard whom they defeated 21-18 earlier in the season. The Eagles finished with a record of 5-2 in league play and 5-4 overall.

With new Head Coach Gail Shanelec and a lot of talented underclassmen, Eagle Football looks promising in the future.

The Board of Education meets once a month to discuss school problems and policies. This is a hard working, non-paying responsibility that these members have. It isn't easy to please the entire student body, but these members have the best of interest of the students, faculty, and parents in mind.

The students of Kingman High School would like to express our appreciation to the Board of Education for their consideration given to our school.
